Fees of the Refugee Review Tribunal

Regulation 4.31B(1) of the Migration Regulations 1994 sets out the fee for review by the Refugee Review Tribunal. The fee is payable within 7 days of the time when notice of the decision of the Refugee Review Tribunal is taken to be received. Under regulation 4.31B(4) of the regulations, only one fee is payable for each application even in the application includes more than one person.

Fee Exemption

Under clause 4.31B(3) of the Migration Regulations 1994, no fee is payable if the review application is successful.

Fee Waiver/Postponement

Under clause 4.31C of the Migration Regulations 1994, a fee may be refunded or waived if:

- on review by a court, the decision is remitted for reconsideration by the Refugee Review Tribunal and the remitted application is successful, or
- the Minister substituted for the decision of the Tribunal a decision that is favourable for the applicant.

Procedure

Fee Exemption is automatic on decision of the Refugee Review Tribunal. In other cases, contact the Registry for further information.
